Rahul Gandhi like...

The former US president talks about other leaders too. Russian President Putin is described as "Physically, he was unremarkable." Current President-elect Joe Biden is described as "a decent, honest, loyal man" who "might get prickly if he thought he wasn't given his due -- a quality that might flare up when dealing with a much younger boss."

Another case filed...

Following the registration of the case, Gandhi Nagar police station staff had formally arrested Computer Baba in jail on Thursday. Computer Baba was already in jail for obstructing government officials during an anti-environment drive on November 8.

11 PAK SOLDIERS...

The shelling started at 11 a.m. and ended at 1 p.m. "Pakistan deliberately targeted civilian areas," the Indian Army stated. Meanwhile, three civilians also lost their lives while one BSF officer died in the shelling across the LOC.

Khandwa receives national...

He added that the 54 km long river used to have water for 6 months and since its resuscitation it has become perennial. Not just this the area of irrigation has additionally increased by 3.5 lakh hectares due to revival. The district administration has achieved the feat by spending over Rs 235 crore, employing 2.5 lakh labourers in the span of 11 months.

And Goddess Laxmi...

"Thanks to Goddess Laxmi. I am sure even these pieces will be sold in time so that I can return to Narsinghpur today only. I want to celebrate Diwali with my father and family," said Srjal. Srjal said he had earned enough to pay for the first installment of Rs 6,500 for the fee but added that he wants more to buy books and stationery.

Rampal's Aussie friend in NCB net

MUMBAI: Bartel was reportedly in regular contact with Agisialos Demetriades, an alleged drug peddler, arrested by NCB in Oct., and the brother of Gabriella Demetriades, Rampal's live-in partner. An architect living in Bandra, Bartel was questioned by NCB on Thursday and early Friday placed under arrest in the same case in which Bollywood actress Rhea Chakrabarty and at least 20 others have been arrested in the past three months of NCB probe.

India test-fires QRSAM at ITR

New Delhi: India successfully test-fired on Friday the Quick Reaction Surface-to-Air Missile (QRSAM) system at an integrated test range in Chandipur off the Odisha coast, officials said. The test-firing of QRSAM, having a range of 30 km, paves the way for its commercial production, they said. "The QRSAM system has achieved a major milestone by a direct hit on a Banshee pilotless target aircraft at medium range and medium altitudes," the defence ministry said in a statement.

WHO to set up centre for traditional medicine in India

The World Health Organisation announced on Friday that it will set up a Global Centre for Traditional Medicine in India, with Prime Minister Narendra expressing confidence that just like the country has emerged as the 'pharmacy of the world', the WHO institution will become the centre for global wellness.

It is a matter of pride for us that WHO has chosen India for establishing its Global Centre for Traditional Medicine. Modi

University (De novo Category) by the UGC, according to the AYUSH ministry. In his video message, Ghebreyesus said, "I am pleased to announce that we have agreed to open a WHO Global Centre of Traditional Medicine in India to strengthen the evidence, research, training and awareness of traditional and complementary medicine." "This new centre will support WHO's efforts to implement the WHO traditional medicine strategy 2014-2023 which aims to support countries in developing policies and action plans to strengthen the role of traditional medicine as part of their journey to universal health coverage and a healthier, fairer and safer world," he said.

Rs 4,382cr approved as calamity aid to 6 states

CENTRE releases Rs 15,524.43 cr to 28 states

New Delhi: A high-level committee, headed by Union Home Minister Amit Shah, has approved the release of nearly Rs 4,382-cr to six states as central assistance for the natural calamities they faced this year. The funds will be released to West Bengal, Odisha, Karnataka, MP, Maharashtra and Sikkim as assistance for the damage caused by cyclone, floods and landslides during the year.

Farmers' talks with Centre constructive: Punjab CM

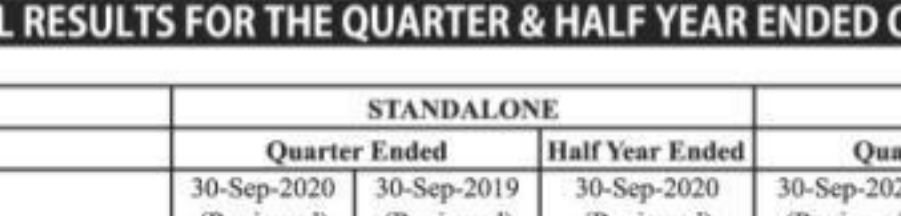

Chandigarh: Punjab CMAmarinder Singh welcomed the positive spirit in which the farmers' unions and the Centre held discussions on Friday on the imbroglio over the farm laws and other related issues. Singh said the meeting had, for the first time, enabled the two sides to talk in an open environment. The fact that both sides came to the table and agreed to find solutions suggests that they had come to a mutual realisation on the need to find solutions to the prolonged crisis triggered by the farm laws, he said.

Nitish playing game, fears BJP neta

OUR BUREAU New Delhi The loss of the election and be prepared for an alliance with his JD-U. His party sources say Nitish finds it difficult to manage the saffron party having a bumper majority, while it will be easier to manage Tejashwi, whose RJD emerged the single largest party with highest 75 seats.

Notwithstanding PM Modi endorsing Nitish Kumar to continue as the Bihar CM, a senior BJP leader active in the poll campaign in the state has warned the party leadership not to get into the trap of a game the JD-U chief is playing to ditch the party, not immediately but in not a distant future, to tie up with the RJD's Tejashwi Yadav. He had done it in 2015 and he can do it again to remain in the CM's chair without any challenge as he would be more comfortable to handle Tejashwi than the BJP's Sushil Modi tipped to be again the deputy CM, the leader underlined.
